I appreciate your being able to join with me this morning on short notice to begin on the solution of the mission which was recently given to me. To be able to draw upon your experiences and knowledge in the field with which we are now concerned will, I know, facilitate bringing all to a satisfactory conclusion.

I look forward to seeing you here again at 10:30 a.m. next Wednesday, October 15.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

ROBERT L. SCHULZ
Special Assistant to the President for Liaison with Former Presidents
